2009 Average Contribution Rates by Economic Division

The annual report on the average contribution rates for Illinois employers is complete. Average contribution rates are based on employers' most recent North American Industry Classification Systems (NAICS) codes in Benefit Funding System (BFS) as verified by the Quarterly Census of Employment and Wages (QCEW).

The average rates, shown below, will be used as the basis for new employer taxes in 2010. These rates do not include the Fund Building Rates, applicable in 2009.
